

I believe the estate tax should be repealed. It is a dishonest tax. Our families' parents, grandparents have been taxed on every dollar of it and for the government to plunge their hand in that money again is totally dishonest. It is stealing from families that have worked hard to leave their money to their family. It is so outrageous it makes me sick.

Disgusted in CT.

Linda Hicks